

Broncos and Thunder dominate tier-two tourney

The Southern Broncos and Grandview Parkland Thunder won the A-side finals at the annual Estevan Novice/Atom Tier Two Tournament this past weekend.

The Assiniboia Southern Broncos, which also includes players from Coronach, Kincaid, Glentworth and Lafleche, beat the Swift Current Broncos 6-1 in the atom A-side final at Affinity Place Sunday evening. The Manitoba-based Grandview Parkland Thunder, which features players from Swan River, Roblin, Dauphin, Gilbert Plains and Grandview, took the novice A-side championship with a last-minute 8-5 win over the Morse Riverside Hawks at the Lignite Miners Centre early Sunday afternoon.

"These are two teams that match up really well from the goaltenders all the way through," said Thunder coach Jeff Legaarden about their game against Morse. "It was just a matter of lucky bounces and we got the bounces at the right time."

The Thunder went up early on the Hawks thanks to a marker by Ronin Mouck, but Morse's Wesley Olson replied late in the frame to even the score at 1-1 heading into the second period. The Thunder's Easton Odut and Brady Turko matched the Hawks' Olson and Cooper Flath's offensive output in the second bringing the score to 3-3 with 20 minutes left to play.

Odut put the Thunder up 23 seconds into the third on a shot from the bottom of the circle that went five-hole on Hawks goalie Calder Jones, only to have Turko even up the score four minutes later. After the Hawks jumped ahead halfway through the frame with a shot from the slot that beat Chase Glover, the Thunder's Cade Legaarden again evened the score just over a minute later. With 2:30 left to play, Turko notched the hat trick to give Grandview a 6-5 lead. Odut got the insurance marker one minute later before registering his own hattie with 21 seconds remaining.

"We put the team together after the regular season is done," said Legaarden. "We started two weeks ago, so this is our first tournament we've had together as a team. Obviously it turned out real well. We've got a pretty good core group and everybody contributed."

The Estevan Bruins novice tier-two team fell 6-1 to the Gull Lake Bandits in the C-side final Sunday morning at Affinity Place. Estevan's Payton Phillips scored the team's goal, while Pierce Lozinsky took the loss in net.

"It was a good game," said Bruins coach Rodney Phillips, noting his roster includes select players from Estevan's novice teams. It was "pretty evenly matched and the kids just got a little tired towards the end, but I think they had a lot of fun."

The Estevan Bruins atom tier-two team came out flat in the C-side final against the Whitewood Black Elks,
